

Emmanuel Lutheran Music Series Goal

Lutheran Christians possess such a rich musical heritage. Martin Luther himself was into music and expressed: "Next to the Word of God there is nothing as powerful to move the soul as music." Such as J.S. Bach, Mendelssohn, Handel and others followed this guiding principle. Our Music Series seeks to continue in this heritage by making possible concerts with the finest of artists and groups expressing this same theme: "All music to the glory of God."

2012 Season
"All music to the glory of God"
J.S. Bach

EMMANUEL
LUTHERAN MUSIC
SERIES

800 S. Military
Dearborn, MI 48124

Phone: 313-565-4002
E-mail: jweber@emmanueldearborn.org www.Emmanueldearborn.org

EMMANUEL LUTHERAN
MUSIC SERIES
PRESENTS:

The Herald String Collection... + one gold flute

2012 Season
"All music to the glory of God"
J.S. Bach

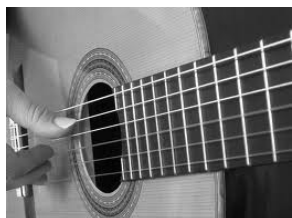

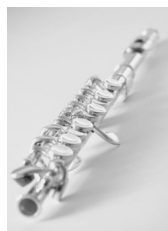

February 12,
2012

THE 2012 SEASON

Winter Concert: February 12, 2012 4:00pm

“Hark! The Herald String Col- lection ... + one golden flute”

is the kickoff concert in the 2012 Season
featuring guitarist Terry Herald and

flutist Barb
Ogar. This
renown
duet of Detroit based musicians will perform a variety of pieces including some Baroque, Renaissance as well as original compositions

by Terry Herald.

Tickets: Family=$20

Individual-$15

Senior/Student=$10

Meet the Artists

Barb Ogar

Is well known
worldwide
as a renowned
flute
teacher,
performer
and associate of Sir James Galway. She is a graduate of Wayne

State University.

Terry Herald A
composer, and classical guitarist among
whose accomplishments include score
for PBS Special on “Air Force One” as well as tribute arrangement of
Danny Boy for Sir
James Galway. Terry also does arranging for jazz greats Earl Klugh and Alexander Zonjic. He is on the faculty at Oakland University.

Spring Concert: June 3, 2012

What a honor to announce that one of the foremost piccolo players in the world, Nicola Mazzanti, will be giving

Master Class and Concert as a part of our 2012 Music Series. He has been Solo Piccolo of the Maggio Musicale
Florentino, one of Italy’s leading symphony orchestras since 1988. He has been a active advocate of the piccolo having appeared as soloist with major symphonies around the world. He plays Powell piccolos and flutes and appears on their behalf at classes around the globe.

Fall Concert: November 11, 2012

We are excited to announce that the talented husband/wife team of Alta and Drake Dantzler will conclude our 2012 Season with a wonderful vocal concert. This Tenor and Mezza-Soprano duo have illustrious careers, having performed at such esteemed venues as Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center as well as many operatic productions. Mrs. Dantzler will perform this September with the Dearborn Symphony as soloist in Beethoven’s 9th Symphony. Dr. Dantzler is Professor of Voice and Opera at Oakland University.

